WHAT IS PASSOVER?

Passover, or Pesach (PEH-sach) in Hebrew, is a major Jewish holiday and one of the most widely celebrated. Passover takes place in early spring during the Hebrew calendar month of Nissan. In 2022, Passover will begin on the evening of Friday, April 15 and end on the evening of Saturday, April 23.

WHAT DOES PASSOVER COMMEMORATE?

Passover commemorates the Biblical story of Exodus — in which God freed the Israelites from slavery in Egypt. The celebration of Passover is prescribed in the book of Exodus in the Torah. The Torah consists of the first five books of Moses which are the Foundation of Judaism. The story describes Moses going to Pharaoh and asking that he let the Jews go free from Egypt. Each time Pharaoh refuses, God sends a plague down on Egypt. The tenth and final plague is the killing of the first born by the so-called Angel of Death. In order to protect their first-born children, the Israelites marked their doors with lamb's blood so the Angel of Death would pass over them, hence the name Passover. The Israelites were ultimately freed from slavery but in their haste to leave Egypt were not able to let their bread rise and it remained unleavened. Any type of leavened bread or bread product, known as chametz, is therefore prohibited during Passover, and unleavened bread or matzoh traditionally takes its place.

HOW IS PASSOVER OBSERVED?

The holiday is observed for eight days (seven in Israel), and incorporates themes of springtime, a Jewish homeland, family, remembrance of Jewish history, social justice and freedom — including recognizing those who are still being oppressed today. These aspects are discussed and symbolically represented, during the Passover seder, a celebration with family and friends. Passover seders blend religious rituals, food, song and storytelling using a “haggadah”, a book that recounts the Exodus. Family and friends participate by reading and explaining the symbolism of the foods on the table. Traditionally, the first two and last two days of the holiday are considered ‘full holidays’ and many in the Jewish faith will refrain from work on some or all of those days.

HOW CAN WE CREATE AN INCLUSIVE ENVIRONMENT?

- 1 Get educated. Ensure staff who supervise self-identified Jewish colleagues are aware of Passover and how they can be supportive.
- 2 Intentional planning. Avoid booking meetings and scheduling events on Passover if possible.
- 3 Be flexible. Accommodate requests for time off for religious observances. If shift work is the norm, staff may want to swap shifts to observe Passover. Look for solutions that suit all parties.
- 4 Be thoughtful. If meetings or events are held during Passover, consult with Jewish colleagues on the food and beverages served, as they might have varying dietary restrictions.
- 5 Don't make assumptions. For personal reasons, not all Jewish colleagues may take time off, but they may still observe in various ways.
